

EPSY 630 SINGLE CASE RESEARCH

Kimberly J. Vannest

Ph.D. Louisiana State University
Nationally recognized expert in emotional and behavior disorders and single case research

Catalog Description

Provides skills to conduct research with N=1 designs in the area of special education, school counseling and school psychology; provides the procedures and applications to scenarios in classroom and clinic settings; collect and analyze data in three mini studies.

Central Concepts

Theory and application for designing and conducting studies, analyzing data, and writing up results. Students are required to find a client(s), design their own study, collect and analyze data, and write up results per APA format.

High Impact
Educational Practice
Assessment of Learning

Capstone courses and projects

Quizzes
Single case research project
Assignment
Presentation/ Poster session on Campus

Engagement Strategies:

Synchronous and Asynchronous
Reading books and articles
Live on campus (graduation day)